This year's edition of RENOCAHI will be dedicated to the two basketball coaches—Miss Jean Scott and Mr. Hoy Isaacs.

Miss Scott of Winston-Salem, received her B.S. degree from Appalachian, and has been a member of the faculty of Reidsville High School for four years. She teaches Social studies II and physical education, plus her duty as coach of the girls' basketball team.

Coach Isaacs recevied his B.S. degree from Appalachian and his M.A. degree from Peabody. Seven of the eight years he has taught have been in Reidsville. He coaches the boys' basketball team and teaches physical education and Social studies I and III.

It is with pride that we bestow this honor upon Miss Scott and Coach Isaacs who are most efficient coaches, capable instructors, and friends of all.

ouncil Gives Program

On Friday, October 21, the Student uncil presented in assembly a mock udent Council meeting. The roll was lled and the minutes of the last meet- were read by Joan Davis, the secre- y. After all reports from the mem- rs, the council discussed and acted on old and new business. The meet- was adjourned after the singing of Council song. Diana Standahl nar- ted the proceedings. The object of this ogram was to introduce to the student dy the Student Council, its activities, d its members.

Annual is Begun

After their successful magazine campaign, the seniors have at last started work on the RENOCAHI. The business of the moment is canvassing advertisements from Reidsville's leading merchants.

All the classes have rushed into the auditorium, had makeup doused on their faces, and smilingly sat before the camerman—this in order to have their pictures in the annual. And the seniors have had their little jount down to Throckmorton's to have their beauty sturck, too.

The staff hopes to put out one of the finest yearbooks yet.

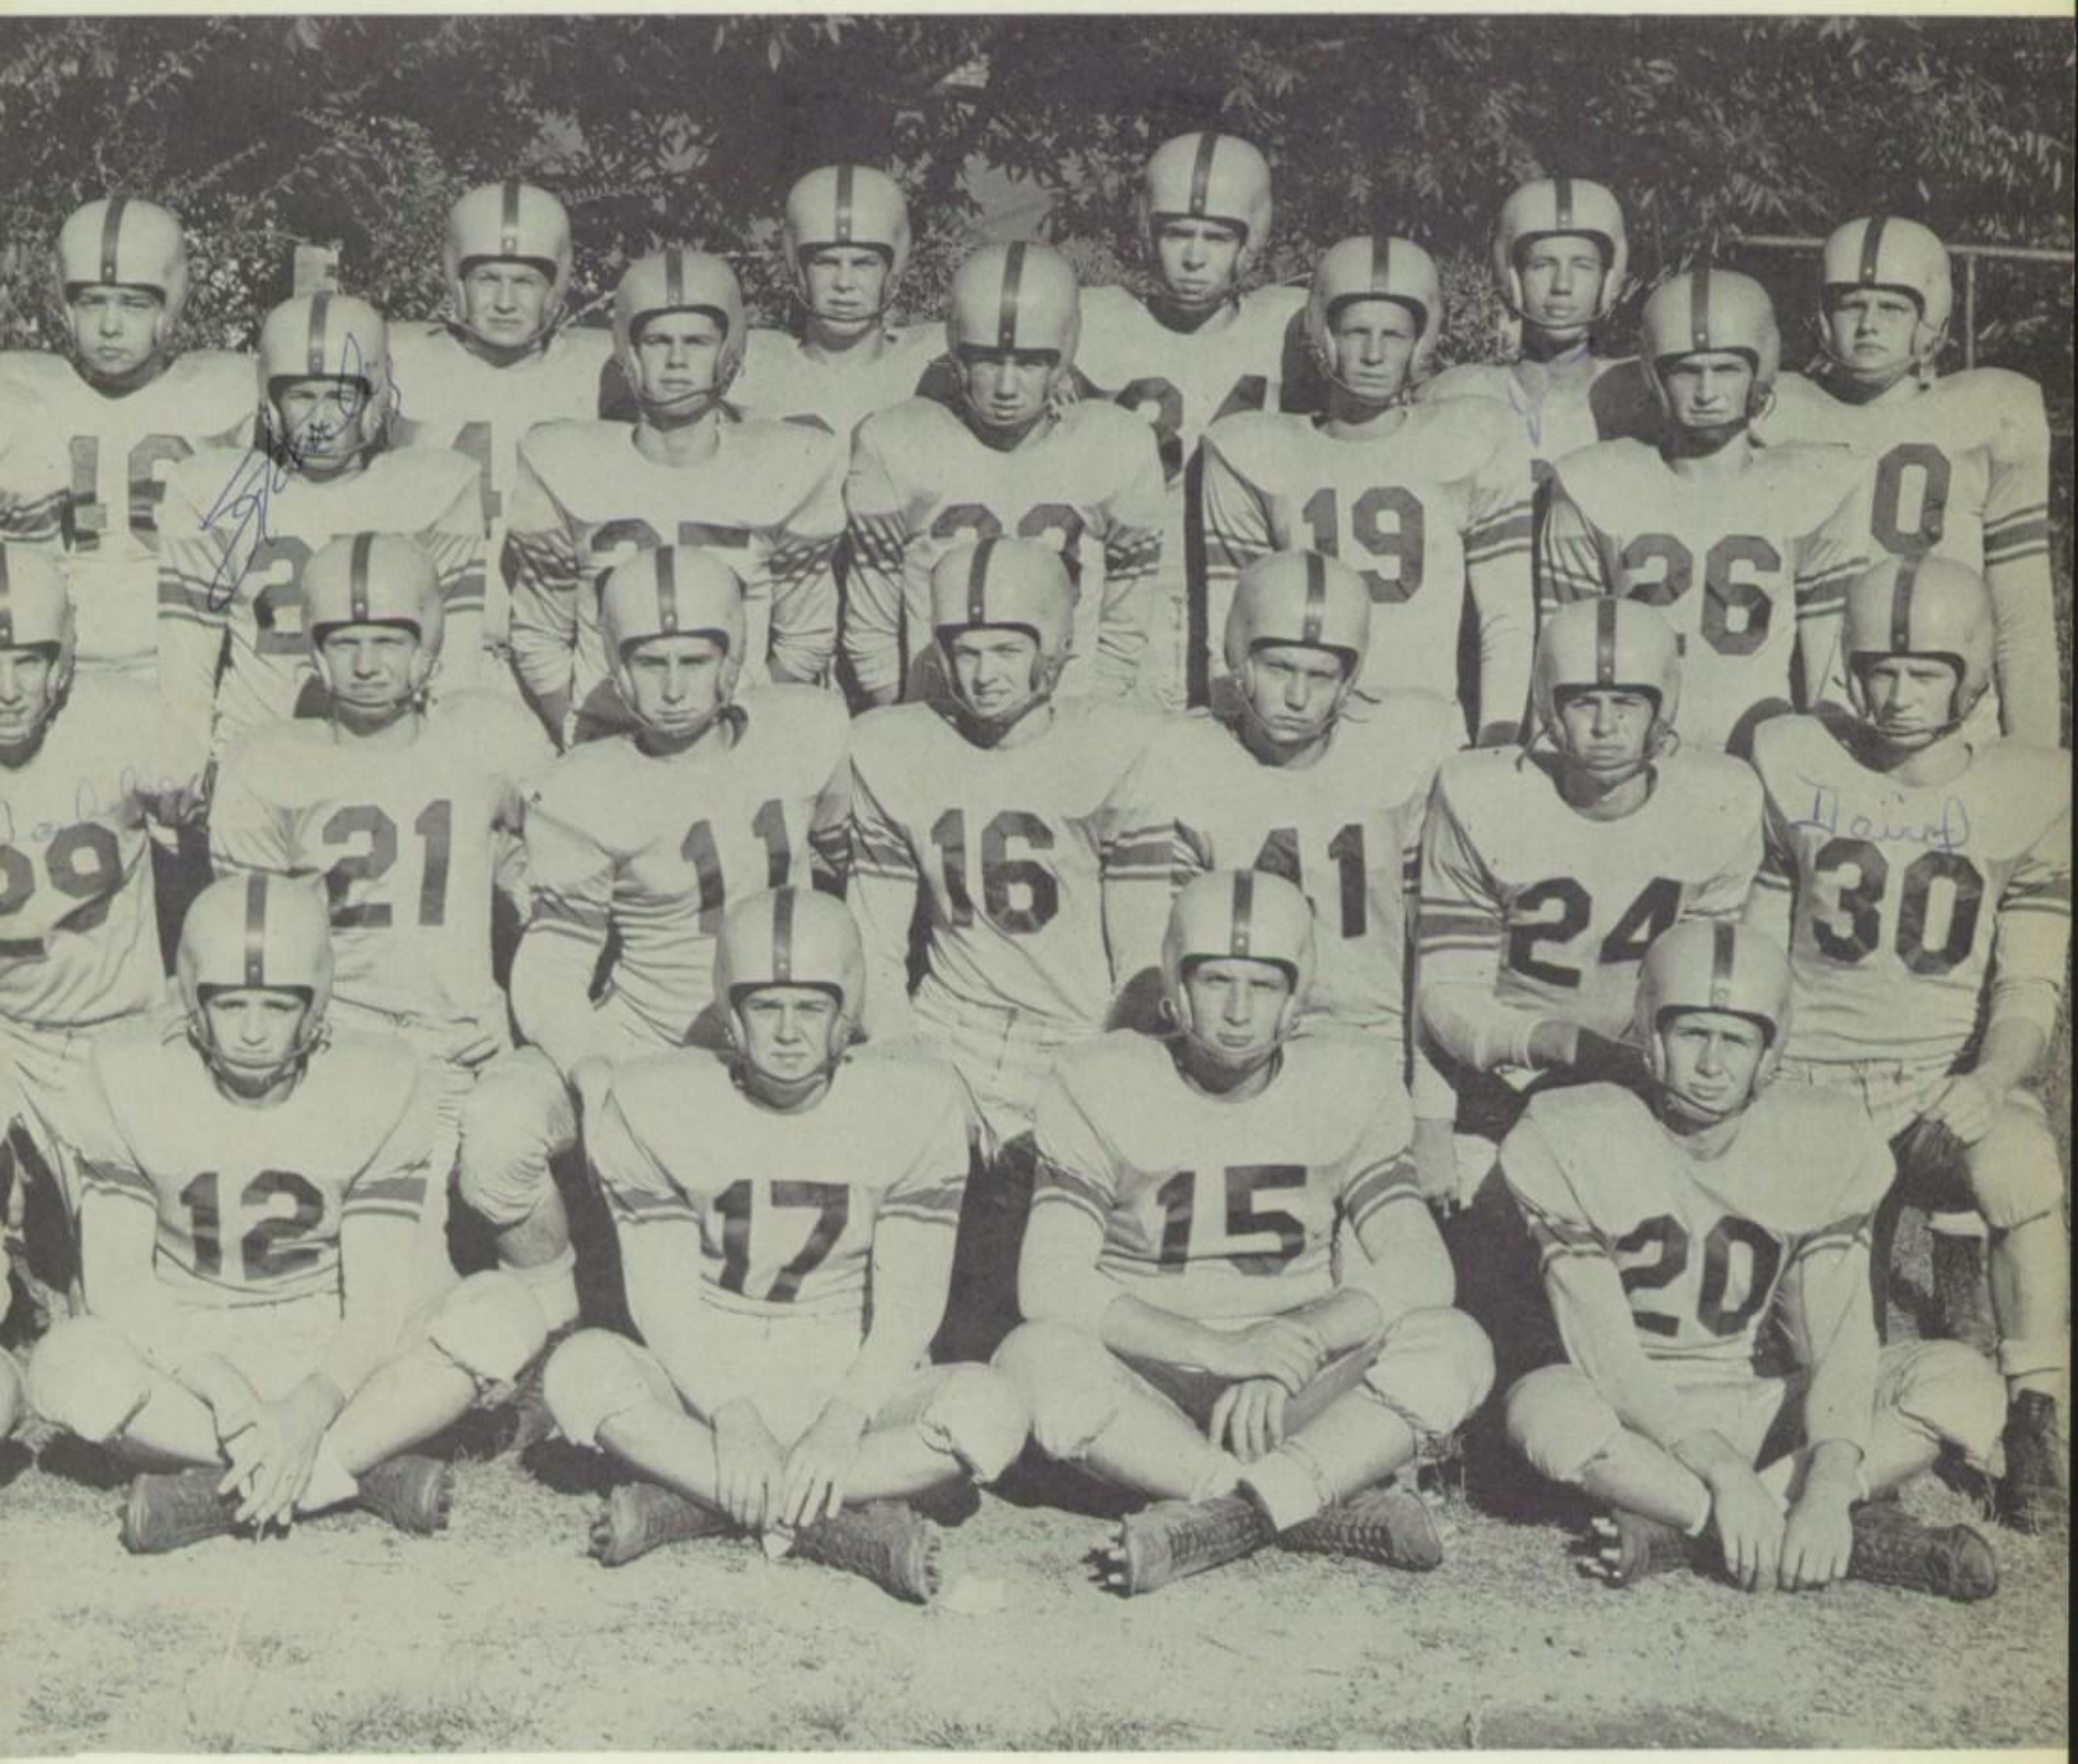
The State AA Championship



David Bray and Bobby Price were fine field generals. The forward wall was led by ends David Amos and John Young. Tackles Nicky Hester and Kelly Minyard, guards Mike Gentry, and Charles Hoover, and Tommy Stanley. The Lions also had great reserve strength. The leading reserves were Walter Leibscher, Willard Rumley, and Jimmy Trotter.

Two of the Lions were named to the All-State team. They were Kelly Minyard and Charles Hoover. Hoover also made third-string All-American. Bobby Cooke and Donald Coker were two of the finest halfbacks in the state. Coker was the leading scorer on the team. John Medley, the bruising fullback, ran roughshod through opposing lines.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

Coach Jean Scott has come up with another fine team despite being hit heavily by graduation. The Lady Lions lost two fine forwards and a guard. But forwards Wilma Ferguson, Peggy Coleman, Barbara Strader, and Nola Morris have taken up the scoring slack. Diana Cobb, Diana Standahl, and Rachel Lynn have all been outstanding at the guard positions for the Lions.

Ferguson and Coleman are two of the finest forwards in the conference and Rachel Lynn is one of the better guards. Diana Standahl has been a great rebounder for the Lions all year while Captain Shelby Garner has rattled more than one offense.

BOYS' BASKETBALL

The Lions are led by forwards Levi Stanley and Donald Coker, Center Nicky Hester, and guards Clark Holt and Alex Smith. In forward Levi Stanley, Coach Hoy Isaacs has a great tip-in artist. His other forward, Donald Coker, scores mostly on drive-ins and is a great rebounder. Nicky Hester is a good, smart center who always sizes up the situations. Clark Holt is a guard who has a fine set shot. Alex Smith is the other guard and he scores mostly on jump shots and drive-ins. Bobby Cooke is the sixth man on the team. He can play either forward or center. The Lions have two other fine reserves in John Young and Bud Smith.

BASEBALL

Finishing the 1954 season with resounding triumph over Gray High, the Golden Lions shelled Ace Caldwell, supposedly the best high school pitcher in the state, from the mound. This was Caldwell's only defeat.

Leading the Lions to a second place finish in the conference was Hollis Robertson, Bill Ross, Donald Chilton, and Don Coker. Ross and Robertson shared the mound duties. Coker was probably the best shortstop in the conference. Frank Hooper had a great season as third base man. Donald Chilton, Bobby Cooke, and John Medley patrolled the outfield. Gene Overby was the Lion's second baseman and Raeford Roberts was the catcher.

CLASS PROPHECY

A heavy silence settles over the room as the clock strikes twelve. My eyes have followed the shadows on the wall for hours and now are about to close. Ah. . . sleep. But a dream keeps appearing and disturbing my peace. It seems to be a vision!

"Who are you? Why are you here?"

"I am Time and I am here to check on you."

"But why? What have I done?"

"That is what I am here to find out. I check on everyone to find out what they have done and what they have left undone. I also grant one request when I come to see you. What would you like me to do?"

"If you check on everyone, then you must know all about what my classmates of 1955 have been doing since our graduation from Reidsville High School. I would like for you to tell me that."

"Well, as you probably would assume from the number of engagement rings when you last saw them, quite a few have married.

Jeannie Galliher is happily married and lives in Oklahoma and Gayle Reynolds lives with her husband in Georgia.

There seems to have been a demand for ministers since Peggy Jefferson, Joan Pegram, Pat Parrish, and Louise McCollum are minister's wives. Gayle Hughes married her dream man about five years after she finished school. Living in Greensboro happily married are Marsha Dixon, Joanne Jones, Arlene Marks, Rachel Paschal, Rebecca Bailey, and Alene Wilson.

Nancy Moore and her husband now own and operate a soda shop. Judy Swain, Rebecca Turpin, and Margaret Tysinger live on huge ranches out west with their families. Then a few headed further west to California with their husbands. They were Carol Toler, Mattie Blakely, and Joann Paschal. Nancy Stevens, Rachel McGehee and Barbara Driscoll chose to rear a family in their hometown of Reidsville.

Shirlene Hall is now married, but in her spare time, she helps Audrey Madren out in her beauty shop. It is said that their hair styles are the rage of Paris. Shelby Dill is the author of several books on how to teach music. She and her husband are constantly called upon to give lectures to college groups."

"Happy are the married! I am so glad that my old classmates have found happiness. But please continue!"

"It is amazing how well all of them did. Now let me think, who are some more? Oh, yes, Serena Hendrix spends most of her time abroad. She and her millionaire husband are fond of traveling. Harold Wray is recognized as an industrial relationist.

There are many girls who made their careers as secretaries. Shelby Garner is Mr. J. Spencer Love's foreign secretary. She has been to all the South American countries. Louise Pritchett, Nancy Robertson, and Nancy Smith share a lush apartment in New York where they work as secretaries. Out in California working for Metro-Goldwyn-Meyer are Janice Trent and JoAnne Wingfield. C. B. S., owned by Levi Stanley, would have to discontinue if it were not for Susie Blevins and Wanda Clymer and their services. Since Shirley Cobb and Ellen Strickland like Reidsville so much, they both are secretaries at the American Tobacco Company, which is owned by John Craddock.

Frank Hooper is a very successful C. P. A. in Reidsville. Reigning as mayor of Reidsville is Alex Smith. The other city councilmen are Charles McKinney, Jerry Stanfield, Franklin Strickland, and Donald Chilton. They are busy every minute trying to make Reidsville a better city. It has really grown and Roy Mitchell has a responsible position as chief-of-police. One of the detectives, Ronald Apple, works along with Elvin Greene tracking down criminals."

"It is indeed wonderful to learn the successes of all these people. Do not let me interrupt you."

"Reidsville High School now recieves the teaching services of Bonnie Gregory for English, Billy Manley for agriculture, Marion Varnon for business, and Wilma Ferguson for physical education. Margaret Lee Lester and Betty Briggs specialized in the teaching. They collaborate in operating a summer camp for handicapped children, which has received national recognition.

Two of the most successful have gone into the missionary field. John Young is in Africa as a medical missionary and Walter O'Briant specializes in working with the youth in Russia. Several of your classmates are making a career out of serving the country. These outstanding ones are Marine Bobby Cooke, Cadets Thomas Chapman and Stephen Somers. David Amos, a general in the army, and jet pilot Donald McKinney.

The medical field has been served well by both doctors and nurses from the class of '55. On the staff of nurses at Johns Hopkins Hospital in Baltimore are Nola Morris, Nancy Sheridan, Jean Soyars, and Gladys Apple. Patricia Parrish heads a staff of nurses in Reidsville and Barbara Wilkerson has made a sucdessful nurse in a New York hospital. Joan Davis is a medical technologist in the same hospital. Robert Pritchett is interested in clearing the slums in New York, so he is a doctor there. Bobby Price and Nicky Hester have made names for themselves in the surgical field. For a treatment of the mind, Benny Smith cannot be beaten. Leading experimenter on a cure for cancer is Dr. Virginia Wilkins."

"It is so good to hear that so many are serving their fellowman. Tell me about some of the others now."

"There are many who are entertaining others which is also important. You might turn on the radio any day and hear Walter Scott singing one of Buddy Smith's songs and accompanied by Mary Beth Stokes on the piano. Foremost in today's literary field are novelist Rosetta Jarrell, newspaper reporter Lamar Jolly, and Alvis Sapaugh, who is editor of the ATLANTA CONSTITUTION. Ronald Moore, a sportscaster, gives the best reviews on professional baseball players John Knowles and Billy Ross, and professional football players, Charles Hoover, John Medley, Kelly Minyard, Willard Rumley, and Tommy Stanley. Entertaining as a star of the ice capades is skater Jean Cobb. Cecil Dixon is one of the dare-devil helldrivers on his motorcycle. The pictures painted by Betty Jo Trent are world known for their beauty.

There are also quite a few businessmen and women. Frances Kelly owns a tall girls' shop, with exclusive designers, Rebecca Pegram, Shirley Stone, and Doris Apple designing the clothes.

Floyd Hough owns Roses' Dime Store and David Talley and Bobby Stanley own a grocery store with Wallace Warren head of the meat department. Owning their own businesses also are Bobby Walker and Eugene Walker.

Russell Palmer is considered the country's greatest car designer. Designing the motors for Russell's car is Melvin Smith."

"I am just so pleased with all my friends. There are others, aren't there?"

"Yes, there are a few more. You know farmers are the backbone of the nation. James McKinney owns a dairy farm in Maine. Jimmy Cobb owns a ranch along with Rogers Madren, Bobby Dove, and Junior Stewart.

Politics has also entered the picture. Doris Roach is Chief Justice of the Supreme Court. Diana Standahl is president of a law firm in New York.

A picture of success is Henry Pegram as a contractor. David Bray is successful as a civil engineer. At Remington Arms Company, Bob Waynick is a ballistic engineer.

Ronald Borland has astounded America by his improvements in radio and television.

Southern Bell Telephone Company could not do without its chief operators, Etta Dunevant and Mary Farling. That seems to conclude the list of classmates. Are you well satisfied?"

"I could hope for nothing better."

Well at last we made it. It has been fun going to school with you. You're one of the nicest boys I know.

"Bootsie" K.

Dear Joe,

Well we finally made it, didn't we? We have had some crazy times, haven't we? Remember when I was going with Robert? We have, also, had fun this year, too. I have really had some time with Burr and you've been some help to me. But we did have fun boat riding didn't we? Maybe we can go again. Keep Pete straight and by all means don't get too wild this summer. I'll see you some this summer I am sure. Best of luck to a deserving guy. Don't forget me - Come to S.C. next year and I'll fix you up, okay?!?

Love,

Jo Anne

AUTOGRAPHS

Dear "Joe",

Well that time is here, almost! It's really seemed so short. I just can't believe that we're almost ready to graduate.

Thanks for being so good to me this year. You don't know how much I appreciate your presence during my school days. And not because you are kind enough to take me home whenever I ask you either! It's just that you have always got a smile and something bright to say to me everytime you see me and it sure has helped.

I sure will miss you and will always wonder how you are doing.

You + Charles behave at camp this year!!!!

I'll be seeing "Ruddy"

Love,
Janice

Joe,

We have had our little ups and downs but it has been fun. It really won't seem the same in homeroom without you next year.

Sorry the "little crowd" couldn't get together and my friends.

Be good and I'll see you around.

Love always,
